How cute would this Patriotic Gnome be to display from Memorial Day thru Labor Day! This guy has lots of decorative painting and is 5 layers thick in some parts.

This is a DIY item.

He measures approx 31 inches tall. He comes apart between his legs and coat by sliding him into the attached pocket making him easier and economical for shipping.

He is sealed and can be put outdoors, but would need to be in a covered area and protected from the elements. To preserve his quality, indoors is always recommended.
